Webinar Sign-Up

Unifor's Education Department will host a series of informative Webinars throughout the COVID-19 pandemic.

Webinars related to mental health, human rights, activism, women's leadership, health & safety, workers' rights, public pension programs and politics ensure that issues important to our members remain in the forefront.

By participating in these free webinars, members can engage with experts and get answers to urgent questions quickly and effectively.

Unifor remains committed to providing members with timely assistance and support during this very challenging and difficult time.
