UNIFOR UNILINK

October 4, 2025

Unifor commemorates National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, media workers launch Fact Checked campaign, October 4 Protect Canadian Jobs rally, BIWOC conference, World News Day, softwood lumber tariffs, New Brunswick Social Pediatrics AGM, the International Day of Older Persons, Unifor members win a fair price for sea cucumbers, Mental Health Day, and action for MMIWG2S.

WHAT'S HOT

Watch the launch of the Fact Checked campaign—a bold stand against misinformation and for journalism.

WATCH VIDEO

TAKE ACTION

GTA members, join us Saturday, October 4 at the Protect Canadian Jobs Rally in Brampton, ON —a family-friendly event to show our jobs and our future are worth fighting for.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor leaders marked the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation in Brantford, sponsoring the unveiling of the former Mohawk Institute Residential School as an interpreted historic site.

READ MORE

More than 200 delegates met for Unifor's annual Black, Indigenous and Workers of Colour Conference under the theme

“Rooted in resistance: healing, justice and solidarity.”

READ MORE

Unifor calls for action as Trump continues his attack on Canadian softwood lumber jobs with new tariffs.

READ MORE

On World News Day Unifor continues to raise awareness about the critical role journalists play in providing fact-based, credible information.

READ MORE

On October 1 Unifor celebrates the International Day of Older Persons under the theme “Older Persons Driving Local and Global Action: Our Aspirations, Our Well-being, Our Rights.”

READ MORE

Atlantic Regional Director Jennifer Murray attended the N.B. Social Pediatrics AGM to hear about their

FFAW-Unifor members stood together, successfully fighting back against a successful year and Unifor's contributions to community outreach.

READ MORE

foreign vessel under-cutting the fair price for sea cucumber.

READ MORE

Friday, Oct. 10 is World Mental Health Day. Read and share the Unifor statement and help create safer and healthier workplaces.

READ MORE

On October 4, Unifor encourages members and allies to stand in solidarity with Indigenous families and communities to honour the lives of MMIWG2s whose lives have been cut short by violence.

READ MORE

Unifor
115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8
Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org