

December 13, 2025

2025 Unifor convention video, register for the National Skilled Trades conference, 2025 ORC review, Saskatchewan leadership meeting, Lana Payne and Samia Hashi's speeches to ORC, Social Justice Fund donations, new collaboration on publicly owned rail campaign, sounding the alarm on mental health supports in Nova Scotia, and a new contract for Kuehne + Nagel workers.

Relive the energy of Unifor's 2025 Convention in Vancouver, where delegates celebrated victories and

Register now for the Unifor National Skilled Trades Collective Bargaining and geared up for the fight ahead to protect Canadian jobs.

New Technology Conference, taking place February 10-12, 2026 in Toronto.

WATCH VIDEO

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

As 2025 comes to an end, delegates at ORC gathered in Toronto with a unified message:
Canadian workers are not facing this trade war alone.

READ MORE

Unifor local leadership from across Saskatchewan met this week to share bargaining updates and plan political action campaigns.

VIEW PHOTOS

In her report to ORC, Samia Hashi told members that the country doesn't run without the hard work of Unifor members in every sector.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor's National Rail Council is launching a new collaboration with Public Rail Now

Lana Payne told ORC delegates that if any government wants to dismantle trade union rights, it will have to take on Unifor.

WATCH VIDEO

The Unifor Social Justice Fund is making major year-end donations to food banks and women's shelters across Canada.

READ MORE

Unifor calls on Bell to end era of jobs cuts following Expertech closure announcement.

to advance publicly owned and accountable rail systems.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor is sounding the alarm on growing threats to Nova Scotia's mental health and addictions system.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Wage increases and job security are highlights of a new contract ratified by Unifor members with global logistics company Kuehne + Nagel.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8
Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org