

April 18, 2026

Unifor teams up with CUPE and the Steelworkers in Alberta, the Canadian Hillman Prize, register for “The Power of Us”, Unifor Auto Council, health and safety conference, strike vote at Grand River Transit, and new collective agreements at Mr Furnace and Great Canadian Coaches.

WHAT'S HOT

Unifor congratulates Toronto Star reporter Brendan Kennedy on winning the 2026 Canadian Hillman Prize for fearless reporting on abuses at Maplehurst jail.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

Registration is now open for "The Power of Us: Status, Safety and Solidarity" Unifor BIWOC conference, June 12–14 in Port Elgin.

REGISTER NOW

IN THE NEWS

More than 70 union activists from across Alberta were in Calgary last week, training to knock on doors, have campaign conversations with coworkers, and build grassroots activism.

READ MORE

Unifor Auto Council gears up for 2026 Detroit Three bargaining.

READ MORE

Unifor members join National Health and Safety Conference to build strong workplace inspection and investigation skills.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Local 4304 members at Great Canadian Coaches ratify a new agreement with 91% support, securing gains in wages, scheduling, and fairness.

READ MORE

Local 4304 members at Grand River Transit deliver a 93% strike mandate, showing strong unity as bargaining continues.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 1999 members at Mr. Furnace ratified a new collective agreement that delivers wage increases and improved benefits.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org