

June 6, 2026

Members descend on Ontario legislature for public health care rally, Auto bargaining video, 2026 Pride events, Unifor supports CRTC on streaming, forestry sector task force report, federal budget submission, Injured Workers' Day, mediator rules against Amazon, transit workers in Victoria vote to strike, members serve strike notice at the Fairmont Empress, and Bell Technical Solutions workers ratify new agreement.

WHAT'S HOT

Watch Lana Payne outline the strategy behind choosing Ford as the target company to negotiate the strongest possible pattern agreement.

WATCH VIDEO

TAKE ACTION

Celebrate Pride with your union this summer. Check this list of upcoming events to get involved.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members took over downtown Toronto for a massive march and rally for public health care.

READ MORE

Unifor is pushing back after Ottawa ordered the CRTC to reconsider its Online Streaming Act implementation decisions.

READ MORE

The federal government's forestry sector task force proposals provide a clear road map to re-build the sector and create good jobs.

READ MORE

Unifor urged the government to protect Canadian jobs during the federal budget consultation process.

READ MORE

An independent mediator has found that Amazon was responsible for the breakdown of first-contract bargaining at its facility in Delta B.C.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Local 333-BC members at BC Transit in Victoria vote 97% in favour of strike action.

READ MORE

Members at Bell Technical Solutions in Ontario and Quebec voted to ratify their new collective agreements over the weekend.

READ MORE

Local 4276 has served notice of a strike deadline of June 6 at the Fairmont Empress Hotel.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8
Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org