UNIFOR UNILINK

September 14, 2025

Unifor rallied for justice at the Windsor Titan facility, take action against Diageo, Unifor members at Munro Academy begin strike action, federal support for tariff-affected industries, Retired Workers' Council takes on Trump, First Student threatens drivers with a lock-out, support for Canadian biofuels industry, B.C. Labour Day video, Unifor members at Transdev welcome mediator appointment, Equity Fund opportunities, and registration opens for Northern Ontario Leadership Meeting.

WHAT'S HOT

Discover Unifor Area Schools, bringing education opportunities directly to your

TAKE ACTION

Send an email today to Diageo executives urging them to reverse the closure of the region.

READ MORE

Ontario Crown Royal plant.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Hundreds of Unifor members held a solidarity rally outside the Titan Tool & Die plant in Windsor to support locked out Local 195 members and fight back against the company's efforts to move jobs to the U.S.

READ MORE

PROTECT CANADIAN JOBS

Early Childhood Educators at Munro Academy in Cape Breton are on strike for fair pay.

READ MORE

The federal government has announced positive steps to support jobs hit hardest by U.S. tariffs, but stronger action is needed.

READ MORE

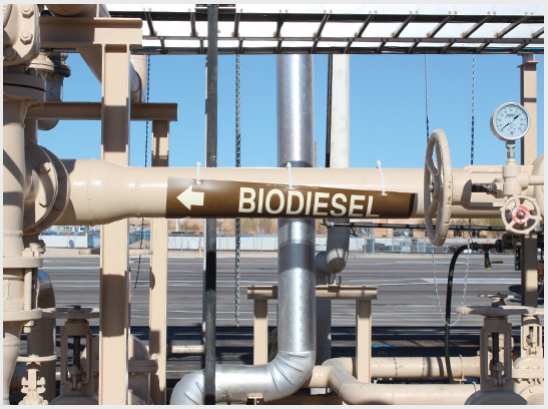
Unifor demands transparency after Crown Royal makers claim it is a Canadian product, despite announcing the closure of its Ontario facility.

READ MORE

Unifor retirees attended the Retired Workers Council last week to discuss mobilizing support for the fight back against unfair U.S. tariffs.

READ MORE

First Student Canada has served Unifor with formal notice that they will lock out



Federal incentives for biofuel production can help revitalize the domestic energy members next Monday, Sept. 15 at 12:01 a.m.

READ MORE

sector and secure Canadian jobs.

READ MORE

Unifor members and their families in Metro Vancouver enjoyed Labour Day with their fellow members at the PNE.

READ MORE

Unifor is pleased that Vince Ready has been appointed as a special mediator in negotiations with Transdev in B.C.

READ MORE

Fall into opportunity—apply to the Local Union Equity Fund before Oct. 20, 2025.

READ MORE

Register today for the 2025 Northern Ontario Leadership Meeting in Thunder Bay October 17 and 18.

READ MORE

Unifor
115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8
Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org