

November 14, 2025

Lana Payne speaks about the trade war in a new video, rally to support Titan Tool members locked out for 100 days, Crown Royal worker Doug discusses the fight to keep good jobs, Trans Day of Remembrance, review of the 2025 Women's Advocate Program, WestJet contracting out overseas, World Toilet Day, and new contracts at First Student and Kamloops Transit.

WHAT'S HOT

"This is our product, and we'll fight for it until the last breath," says Doug, a

TAKE ACTION

Show your support for Local 195 members locked out for 100 days. Join veteran of the Amherstburg Crown

Royal plant.

WATCH VIDEO

the protest on November 18 in Windsor,
ON.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Watch Lana Payne's message of strength, unity, and the path forward for Canada in Trump's trade war.

WATCH VIDEO

On the Trans Day of Remembrance, Unifor remembers the Two-Spirit, transgender and non-binary people whose lives were stolen by violence and systemic neglect.

READ MORE

Dedicated Unifor sisters and siblings received a comprehensive update training for the Women's Advocate Program.

READ MORE

Unifor is calling on WestJet to stop the outsourcing of hundreds of Calgary call centre jobs to El Salvador.

READ MORE

World Toilet Day is a reminder that safe, clean, and dignified sanitation is a fundamental human right.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor members in Owen Sound and Kincardine working for First Student have ratified new collective agreements that addresses gaps in wages.

READ MORE

Local 4268 members at First Student Canada in Georgetown ratified their first agreement, gaining a 13% wage increase Unifor Local 114 representing members at Kamloops Transit in British Columbia have a new collective agreement with substantial wage increases.

READ MORE

over the life of the contract.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org