

May 15, 2026

Belleville rally against healthcare cuts, ETOP conference, pledge to support the Unifor campaign for Canadian jobs, auto bargaining notice, Unifor member wins journalist award, Prairie Regional Council video, Kruger invests in Quebec, IPV on the lobby agenda, Unifor at Bell AGM, Paramedic Services Week, FIFA vs. human rights, International Day Against Homophobia, Biphobia, and Transphobia, Personal Support Workers and Continuing Care Assistants Day, and a new contract for Local 4268 members.

WHAT'S HOT

ETOP Conference equips Unifor members with tools to advocate, organize and lead.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

Pledge your support for Unifor's plan to protect Canadian jobs.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members rallied in Belleville to protest layoffs at Quinte Health and push back against the growing privatization of public health care.

READ MORE

Unifor will launch 2026 Detroit Three auto negotiations on June 22 with Ford Motor Company.

READ MORE

Unifor congratulates Globe and Mail reporter Carrie Tait on being named Journalist of the Year.

READ MORE

Watch members from across the prairies gather in Edmonton to share bargaining updates and strategize for the year ahead.

WATCH VIDEO

Kruger investment brings new union jobs and hope for Quebec's forestry sector.

READ MORE

Unifor leadership met with members at Agropur Dairy Cooperative after the company announced the closure of its Sussex, N.B. plant.

READ MORE

Unifor urges Ontario MPPs to declare intimate partner violence an epidemic.

READ MORE

Telecom workers asked Bell's top bosses about workforce development plans at the company's AGM and were met with evasive answers.

READ MORE

During Paramedic Services Week, Unifor is recognizing paramedics for their work and calls for better staffing, mental health supports, and safer working conditions.

READ MORE

As the 2026 FIFA World Cup approaches, Unifor is hosting an online panel on labour rights, human rights, and holding FIFA and host countries accountable.

READ MORE

On International Day Against Homophobia, Biphobia and Transphobia, Unifor echoes the international call for justice and freedom for all.

READ MORE

On Personal Support Workers and Continuing Care Assistants Day, Unifor is calling for urgent investments in care and institutional respect for frontline workers.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor Local 4268 school bus driver members at Stock Transportation ratify a new collective agreement.

READ MORE

Unifor

115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8
Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org